INVITATION to AUDITION

Calling all young musicians who demonstrate exceptional musical passion and ability to audition.

The new London Youth Orchestra is an exciting project that offers an opportunity for young instrumentalists from all over London to meet on a weekly basis.

In collaboration with the Verdandi Camerata orchestra and the London Russian Music Academy, the orchestra provide excellent professional musicians and tutors to work with the students. Together with the music director, they help to prepare thrilling programmes for performances at a high level in prestigious venues.
